

NEWS SUMMARY.

Domestic Affairs. -The Executive Medical Society of Pennsylvania elected the following officers yesterday. President, Henry H. Campbell, M. D.; Vice-Presidents, Drs. Donn and Clark; Treasurer, J. Isaac, M. D.; Secretary, John Buchanan, M. D. -About half-past 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Joseph Morris, aged fourteen years, was shot in the head and breast, and badly injured, by some unknown person during a fight between a crowd of boys, at Moyamensing avenue and Tasker street. He was removed to his home, No. 1224 Rye street. -The alarm of fire about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon was caused by the slight burning of a hair-dressing establishment at Second and Race streets. The alarm about 6 o'clock was caused by the burning of a frame counting-house and shed belonging to the coal yard of Hoopes & Co., Twenty-third and Arch streets. The alarm last night, about 10 o'clock, was caused by the burning of a stable at Thirty-sixth and Bridge streets, Twenty-fourth ward. -Last evening the First Reformed Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia held its seventy-second anniversary, in Horticultural Hall. The one hundredth psalm was sung by the audience standing, when the Rev. Dr. Steele offered up a fervent prayer. The programme for the evening, in addition to the devotional exercises, consisted of remarks by Mr. George Gordon, music by different societies, refreshments, and general impromptu addresses. -George E. Dudley, mate of the American brig James Davis, had a hearing before United States Commissioner Phillips yesterday, upon the charge of assault and battery on James Freeman, steward of the boat. The latter testified that he witnessed the mate cruelly beat a boy named James Miller, while the brig lay in Vassarette, Guadaloupe; he remonstrated with him, whereupon Dudley struck and knocked him down, injuring him to such an extent that he has suffered ever since. One of his ribs was broken. The case was postponed until to-day, in order to secure the attendance of Miller. -The Eighth Ward Contested Election Committee met yesterday. Recorder Givin, who, together with the Mayor, was subpoenaed to produce the ballot boxes of the ward, stated that they had declined to produce them, as all the ballots for the different officers elected were contained in one box, and to produce the votes for the production of the vote for State Senator, where there is a contest pending, over which the committee has no jurisdiction. After argument the committee adjourned. -The semi-annual commencement of the Girls' Normal School took place last evening, at the Academy of Music, in the presence of a large audience. The exercises consisted of singing, recitations, etc. G. W. Fetter, Esq., the principal of the school, after delivering a brief and appropriate address, presented diplomas to the following named graduates: - Kate E. Plummer, Annie M. Hinckley, Annie H. Nevin, Kate A. Cathcart, Sue A. Gaskill, Mary E. Jones, Lizzie Philmer, Amanda C. Doerr, M. Louisa Levin, Mary A. Arbel, Cleo W. McClinton, Mary E. Fisher, Mary F. Souden, Anna J. Miller, S. W. Barnester, Jessie Thompson, Lizzie L. Butler, Annie E. Smyth, Mary Lybrand, Mary E. Breavor, Sallie W. Powell, Annie Lucy, Alina M. Fry, Rena H. Canby, Hulda W. Straube. Total, 52.

Foreign Affairs. -There is a ministerial crisis in Bavaria. -Prince Auerberg has declined the Austrian Premiership. -The Tyrolean Deputies threaten to withdraw from the Austrian Diet, being denied the right to vote and their proper influence. -An earthquake completely destroyed the town of Santa Maura, on the island in the Ionian group bearing that name, on December 29, causing much loss of life. -Another violent debate has taken place in the Corps Legislatif, relative to the commercial treaties with England. Olivier announced that the Cabinet would support the existing arrangement, and the Chamber sustained him by its vote. MARINE TELEGRAPH. For additional Marine News see First Page. NOTICE TO MARINERS. The Danish Government has given notice that in order to render the navigation of the Graa deep independent of Jerne church, which in heavy weather cannot be seen from the bar, the following arrangement of beacons has been made on Fano Island:— A new beacon, 42 feet high, having on the top a red square board, with most iron above and below, has been erected on the northwestern cliff near where the Mill beacon stood, and the Mill beacon has been removed to the eastern cliffs on the north end of Fano. The two beacons and (when seen) Jerne church, kept in a line, is a leading mark over the bar of the Sound of Fano. By order, W. B.
